

Arctic Adventures GREENLAND

Giant icebergs, calving glaciers, baying sled dogs and magnificent wild life, including seals musk oxen and eagles, make Greenland quite unique. Get up close and personal with reindeer and the arctic fox; fly up over the inland Ice Cap and cruise along the Ilulissat fjord and see the glaciers continuously dropping ice chunks into the turquoise blue water with a

OPTIONAL EXCURSIONS

DOG SLED SAFARI

Safari with your guide and his pack of huskies in the manner of the Inuit. Pick up and thermal protective clothing included. 2 hours (choice of shared team or solo) £65/85 pp.

ICEBERGS OF SERMERMUIT

By car to a fertile valley alongside which you can enjoy the bergs drifting in the Ice Fjord. 2/3 hrs. £30 pp.

ICE FJORD CRUISE

Cruise in the Ilulissat fjord, world famous for its drifting bergs and get up close and personal with nature's most extravagant sculptures. 2/3 hours. £55 pp.

DOG SLED ADVENTURE

Somewhat more hardcore than the 2 hour safari, your guide takes you out for the whole day in the mountains and fjords close to Ilulissat through low lying passes and past frozen fjords. 6 hours. £215 pp.

ICE CAP BY HELICOPTER

Does what it says on the tin: fly at low altitude over the Ilulissat Ice Fjord with a ground stop on the Ice Cap. 1½ hours. £281 pp.

BOAT TRIP TO HUNTER'S SETTLEMENT

By boat to Iliminaq south of the Kangia Ice Fjord, a small Inuit settlement (population 80) as dependent on fishing and hunting as their ancestors. Lunch with a local family. 6 hours. £110 pp.

NB: Excursions are guaranteed when pre-booked but operationally dependant on weather conditions. Protective clothing (seal skin anorak, trousers and polar boots) hireable at £30 pp/per day.
